DEFENDANT: ARRINGTON JAYLUN GARDNER
CASE NUMBER: 1:22-CR-00112-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. The defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer.
3. The defendant must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. The defendant must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
5. The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment.
6. The defendant must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
8. The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any persons convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
9. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
10. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
11. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization/employer), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
12. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities.
13. The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.

- E ☐ Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or
- F ☒ Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:
Payment to the victims shall be on a pro rata basis. The special assessments and restitution are due immediately and payable in full, and are to be paid through the Clerk, U.S. District Court. If full restitution is not immediately paid, any amount owing during a period of incarceration shall be subject to payment through the Bureau of Prison's Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. In the event that the defendant is not eligible to participate in that program, the defendant is to make minimum monthly payments of $25.00 while incarcerated. As a special condition of supervised release, the Probation Office shall pursue collection of any balance remaining at the time of release in installments to commence no later than 30 days after the date of release. If restitution is to be paid in installments, the court orders that the defendant make at least minimum monthly payments in the amount of $200.00. No interest is to accrue on this debt. The defendant is ordered to notify the court of any material change in his ability to pay restitution. The Probation Office shall request the court to amend any payment schedule, if appropriate.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if this judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalty payments except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court, unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States Attorney.

The defendant will receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

- ☒ Restitution is to be paid jointly and severally with Markisha Jakeria Johnson (002), Johnathan Earl Kyser (003), D'Undra Norwood (004), Barbara Jackson (005), Kenessa Denise Hackworth (006), Jimmy Dejuan Parnell (007), Justin Deandre Betties (008), Travis Ladell Morrisette (009), Danquile Nakrica Westbrook (010), Edmund Jamarquis Davis (011), and Calvin Davis (012) in case number 22-cr-112-TFM, and Jairice Lynn Shelton (001), Delvin Lee Andrews (003), and Reginald Martez Robinson, Jr.(004) in case number 22-cr-237-TFM.<sup>2</sup>
